This 1930s brick Tudor is sited on one of Ballard's highest points of land. The house-wide living room is flooded with light and features views of the Olympic Mtns and surrounding neighborhood. It has cove ceilings, a plastered fireplace and archway to a formal dining room. Upstairs has additional views of Mt Rainier and city. There's a room-size landing, 2 bedrooms and a half bath. The basement has 3 rooms perfect for hobbies. The home has refinished wood floors throughout and many new windows.
